March 18. 1845.

My Dear Sir,

I have just received your note of day before yesterday, & hasten to say I shall be happy to see you at any time convenient to you.

I am in my office usually from nine till one o'clock. I will make it a point to be there at 12 tomorrow & every other day this week, for the purpose of fixing some time when, if you can call, it shall not be in vain.

Yours very truly,
Saml. A. Eliot.
